

The staff at Chippewa are invested in supporting Indigenous learners. The courses offered are not intended just for our indigenous students but for the whole student body so together we can move forward with Truth and Reconciliation. Through understanding the past of the indigenous people we will be better able to support their learning